The CEZ, Inc. in partnership with the City of Columbia wants to celebrate the launch of the new Vacant Abandoned Building Incentive Program (VABIP). The CEZ, Inc. is providing an incentive program to incentivize reuse through purchase or renovation of vacant and abandoned buildings that will be occupied by small businesses. The program will improve the marketability of commercial spaces and serve to improve the overall community and serve as a resource to promote economic development and job creation in and around the City of Columbia.
