AGES 5–9

Session 1: June 10–14

Barnyard Art Fun

We will use all the elements and principles of art and design. Symmetry will be our tool to create a barn and barnyard animals or other forms. So come for a MOO summer art fun, dress to get dirty.

Instructor: Sonia Neale

Session 4: July 8–12

“Foxing Around the Woods”

Students will create a clay fox bobble head and painting of a fox in the field. Also using their hand to create a clay tree tile and texture tree using mixed media. By using the elements and principles of art and design, we will cut, layer, fold, paint and draw and play to create woodland fun.

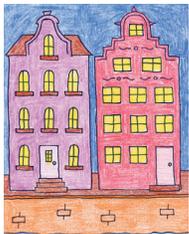

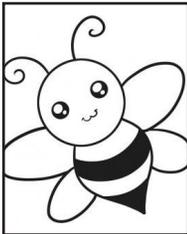

Instructor: Sonia Neale

Session 6: July 22–26

Line Design – What Is your Line

We will learn about what a line is and what all you can do with a line. Come to be ready for movement, rhythm, shape. Using all the elements and principles of art and design students will see what they can do with a line. Look they are everywhere.

Instructor: Sonia Neale

Session 7: July 29–Aug 2

Architecture Fun

Students will use the elements and principles of art and design as they are influenced by architecture to create their masterpieces in both clay and mixed media. Come build some creative fun.

Instructor: Sonia Neale
